This section 2 applies only if Customer orders the Products and Services directly from Adobe. If Customer orders the Products and Services from an Adobe Partner, payment terms are agreed between Customer and the Adobe Partner.

- 2.1 Payment. Customer must pay the fees according to the payment terms in the Sales Order. All invoices will only be delivered electronically to Customer. Adobe may charge interest at a monthly rate equal to the lesser of 1% per month or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law on any overdue fees, from the due date until the date the overdue amount (plus applicable interest) is paid in full. Any fees that are unpaid as of the date of termination or expiration will be immediately due and payable. Customer agrees to provide clear indication with its checks (or other form of payment) as to which invoices (or portions thereof) the payment should be applied. Alternatively, these payment details can be emailed to sjar@adobe.com no later than the date of payment. If Customer is not a publicly-traded corporation, upon Adobe's request, Customer will provide the necessary financial documents to allow Adobe to ascertain the credit-worthiness of Customer.
- 2.2 Failure to Pay. If Customer fails to pay any amount due under this Agreement, Adobe will send Customer a reminder notice. If Customer fails to pay within 15 days of the date of the reminder notice, Adobe may, in its sole discretion, terminate the applicable Sales Order or suspend or restrict the provision of the Products and Services.
- 2.3 Disputes. If Customer believes in good faith that Adobe has incorrectly billed Customer, Customer must contact Adobe in writing within 30 days of the invoice date, specifying the error. Unless Customer has correctly notified Adobe of the dispute, Customer must reimburse Adobe's reasonable collection costs. Customer must pay the undisputed portions of Adobe's invoice as required by this Agreement.
- 2.4 Taxes. Prices do not include applicable taxes. Adobe will invoice Customer for any applicable taxes, and Customer must pay these taxes. Where applicable, Customer must provide a tax-exemption claim to Adobe before placing an order. If Customer is required to withhold income taxes from its payment to Adobe, Customer agrees to send Adobe an official tax receipt within 60 days of payment to Adobe.

3. DELIVERY

On-premise Software is deemed to be delivered and accepted by Customer on the earlier of the date the On-premise Software is made available for electronic download or, if applicable, the date that Adobe ships the tangible media (e.g., CD or DVD) containing the On-premise Software FOB origin. On-demand Services or Managed Services are deemed to be delivered and accepted on the License Term start date.

all solely in connection with Customer's use of the Products and Services for its internal operations. Unless otherwise specifically limited in the Sales Order, User login IDs and passwords will be provided to Customer in a quantity mutually agreed upon by Customer and Adobe. Customer must not share its login IDs and passwords, and is responsible for unauthorized access to its login IDs and passwords. Customer must not allow the use of the same login ID simultaneously by two or more Users.

- 4.2 License Grant for On-premise Software. Provided Customer makes a purchase for the respective Products and Services, Adobe grants Customer, during the License Term, a non-exclusive and non-transferable license to:

- (A) install and use the Products and Services on Computers for its internal operations, for the platforms and quantities set out in the Sales Order; and Customer may also install copies of the On-premise Software in a disaster recovery environment, on a cold backup basis, for use solely in disaster recovery, and not for production, development, evaluation, or testing. For purposes of the prior sentence, cold backup basis means that the backup copies are completely disconnected from any use environment and not receiving automatic data updates, and those backup copies require a manual activation process to pick up the use environment load during the failure of the primary copies.

4.3 License to Documentation. Customer may make and distribute copies of the Documentation for use by Users in connection with use of the Products and Services in accordance with this Agreement, but no more than the amount reasonably necessary. - (C) offer, use, or permit the use of the Products and Services in a computer service business, third-party outsourcing service, on a membership or subscription basis, on a service bureau basis, on a time-sharing basis, as part of a hosted service, or on behalf of any third party;
- (D) attempt to interact with the operating system underlying the On-demand Services and Managed and Services, or modify, create derivative works of, adapt, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, or otherwise attempt to discover the source code in, any Adobe Technology. This restriction will not apply to the extent it limits any non-waivable right Customer may enjoy under applicable law;
- (E) remove, obscure, or alter any proprietary notices associated with the Products and Services;
- (F) use any software components, modules, or other services that may be delivered with the Products and Services, but which are not licensed to Customer and identified in the Sales Order; or
- (G) unbundle any components of the On-premise Software for use on different Computers as the On-premise Software is designed and provided to Customer for use as a single product.

Adobe reserves all other rights not expressly granted in this Agreement.

4.5 Update Requirements. Customer must possess a valid license to the On-premise Software to purchase an upgrade to that On-premise Software. All upgrades and updates are provided to Customer on a license-exchange basis. Upon installing an upgrade or update, Customer may only continue to use a simultaneous installation of the previous version of the On-premise Software to assist Customer in the transition to the upgrade or update for a reasonable period of time (not to exceed 180 days), after which period, Customer must uninstall and cease using the previous version. Except for this limited right to simultaneous installation and use, this right does not otherwise constitute an increase in the scope of use granted to Customer under this Agreement. Such upgrades and updates constitute On-premise Software, and are subject to the terms of this Agreement and the then-current version of the applicable PSLT.

4.6 Third Party Providers. If Customer uses certain features of the Products and Services in conjunction with third party data, products, services, and platforms (e.g. social media platforms, media partners, wireless carriers, or device operating systems), then Customer is responsible for complying with the terms and conditions required by such third party providers.

6. CUSTOMER CONTENT AND DATA

- 6.1 Monitoring. Customer will: (A) implement a process through which infringing, abusive, or otherwise unlawful content ("Unlawful Content") can be reported to Customer; (B) promptly remove any Unlawful Content from Customer Site(s) in accordance with applicable laws and regulations; and (C) promptly notify Adobe if Customer becomes aware of a possible violation regarding any Customer Content that is uploaded to the On-demand Services or Managed Services.

- 7.2 Required Disclosure. The receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information: (A) as approved in a writing signed by the disclosing Party; (B) as necessary to comply with any law or valid order of a court or other governmental body; or (C) as necessary to establish the rights of either Party, but in the case of (B) and (C), only if the receiving Party promptly notifies the disclosing Party of the details of the required disclosure and gives the disclosing Party all assistance reasonably required by the disclosing Party to enable the disclosing Party to take available steps to prevent the disclosure or to ensure that disclosure occurs subject to an appropriate obligation of confidence.
- 7.3 Responsibility for Representatives and Affiliates. For the purpose of this section 7 (Confidentiality) and the definition of “Confidential Information”, a reference to a Party means a Party and its Affiliates. The receiving Party is responsible for ensuring that its representatives and Affiliates fully comply with the obligations of the receiving Party under this section.
