Discussion

Reader Extended Documents, both fillable and savable, that are made available by Customer, including but not limited to on a website, Intranet or network.

Licensing Policy

According to the EULA, Section 16.8.3 provides:

“16.8.3. For any unique Extended Document you may only either (a) Deploy such Extended Document to an unlimited number of unique recipients but shall not extract information from more than five hundred (500) unique instances of such Extended Document or any hardcopy representation of such Extended Document containing filled form fields; or (b) Deploy such extended Document to no more than five hundred (500) unique recipients without limits on the number of times you may extract information from such Extended Document returned to you filled-in by such Recipients. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, obtaining additional licenses to use Acrobat Standard, Acrobat Pro or Adobe Acrobat Suite shall not increase the foregoing limits (that is, the foregoing limits are the aggregate total limits regardless of how many additional licenses to use Acrobat Standard, Acrobat Pro or Adobe Acrobat Suite you may have obtained).

Application

Acrobat X Standard, Acrobat X Pro or Adobe Acrobat X Suite is used to create reader extended documents.

Interpretation

- An Acrobat license is sufficient if Customer chooses to send out an unlimited number of Reader enabled PDF forms AND does not extract information from more than 500 unique instances of the filled PDF form, including hardcopy or electronic submitted PDF forms. If Customer does extract information from more than 500 unique instances, Customer must acquire, install and use appropriate LiveCycle Reader Extension Server licenses.
- An Acrobat X license is sufficient if Customer chooses to send out Reader enabled PDFs to no more than 500 unique recipients an unlimited number of times.

For example, a company has 500 sales representatives that travel each week and submit Reader Extended expense report forms at the end of each week. An Acrobat license allows these 500 employees to repeatedly submit the same expense report form week after week.

- Having more than one licensed copy of Acrobat X Standard, Pro, or Suite does not increase the 500 recipient/respondent limits (i.e. to stack licenses).

For example, Company ABC has 1 license of Acrobat X Pro and therefore a limit of 500 recipients/respondents. Company XYZ has 3 licenses of Acrobat X Pro but similarly has a limit of 500 recipients/respondents, not 1500 recipients/respondents.
