

1. What option in the Target pop-up menu is chosen to open a linked document in a new browser window while keeping the current window available?

- A. _top
- B. _self
- C. _blank
- D. _parent

The correct answer is C

2. What does the asterisk after the file name in the document title bar signify?

- A. document is untitled
- B. page is not located within the site
- C. the extension to the file name has not been specified
- D. unsaved additions or deletions were made to the page

The correct answer is D

3. Using Dreamweaver, it is possible to convert layers to tables and tables to layers.

- True       False

The correct answer is True

4. What describes the correct way to create a page layout that always fills the browser window, no matter what size window the viewer has set?
- A. Add a spacer image to the table.
  - B. Create the table cell with a percentage width in the HTML.
  - C. Use the Dreamweaver Autostretch option to set the table width to resize automatically.
  - D. Create a fixed width table that corresponds with the specific numeric width of the viewer's browser.

The correct answer is C

5. Selecting header in the Property inspector for a given table's cell makes that content (Choose two)
- A. bold and centered in most browsers
  - B. justified in all browsers
  - C. a <th> element
  - D. bold and italicized in most browsers
  - E. left-justified in all browsers

The correct answers are A and C

6. A template can be modified after documents have been created based on the template.
- True       False

The correct answer is True

7. What accurately describes the way templates work in Dreamweaver? If a template file is opened you can edit

- A. nothing in the file, unless no pages have been created from the template.
- B. everything in the file.
- C. any editable region.
- D. anything in the file, but only in Code View.

Only one correct answer: B

8. What happens when content in <DIV> tags is viewed with 3.0 versions of Netscape?

- A. No content is displayed at all.
- B. The content looks the same as it does in any other browser.
- C. The content is only displayed if the visible attribute is set to true.
- D. The content appears in the same location as where the <DIV> tags appear in the code.

The correct answer is D

9. The behaviors that come with Dreamweaver were written to work in all browsers.

- True       False

The correct answer is False

10. What panel is used to change the event that triggers an image swap?

- A. CSS Panel
- B. Assets Panel
- C. Frames Panel
- D. Objects Panel
- E. Behaviors Panel

The correct answer is E