

Supplemental Terms for Teachers Using Adobe Express for Education in India (“Supplemental Terms for India”)

1. Application

- 1.1 Your use of Adobe Express for Education is subject to the K-12 (Primary and Secondary) and Higher Education Additional Terms for Student Data available at <https://www.adobe.com/go/primary-secondary-terms>. (“Student Data Terms”). By using Adobe Express for Education, you affirm that you are an individual engaged in the teaching profession in the course of their employment with a qualified primary or secondary educational institution, as defined at www.adobe.com/go/primary-secondary-institution-eligibility-guidelines (“Educational Institution”). For these Supplemental Terms only, references to “Customer” in the Student Data Terms include you where applicable.

- 1.2 Adobe Express for Education may allow you to invite Students to create an account to join a classroom in Adobe Express for Education upon verifying your educator status as described at <https://helpx.adobe.com/express/web/adobe-express-for-education/for-educators/how-to-verify-your-teacher-status.html>. Before inviting Students under the age of 18, you must obtain verifiable parental or legal guardian consent for the Student’s use of Adobe Express for Education. You are solely responsible for providing any required notices and obtaining, verifying, documenting, and maintaining all required parental, legal guardian, or other consents required under applicable laws. Please visit <https://helpx.adobe.com/in/express/web/adobe-express-for-education/for-educators/add-students.html> for more information. You may only invite Students who are enrolled in class(es) at your Educational Institution. You are responsible for ensuring that the use of Adobe Express for Education technology is fully authorized by your Educational Institution’s administrators or other officials, as applicable.
