

Suzanne Steele

Managing Director, Australia and New Zealand, Adobe

Suzanne is a customer-centric leader who understands the importance of client relationships to competitive differentiation and growth.

Adobe ANZ is at the forefront of a market where no industry is immune from digital disruption. In her role, Suzanne is responsible for driving the ANZ business to new levels as well as supporting customers realise their mission of delivering exceptional experiences.

She has 25+ years' experience in leading and motivating management teams across data, software and analytics businesses, with her work abroad in North America, the UK and Singapore including senior roles at Visa Europe, CACI London and Morgan Stanley.

Prior to joining Adobe at the end of 2017, Suzanne spent two years leading Experian's ANZ operations as Managing Director, with proven success in driving high-performance and engagement through a period of significant business transformation.

Adobe is changing the world through digital experiences. For more information visit: www.adobe.com/au