Powerfully Playful

Following the seriousness of living life during a global health pandemic, some people are heading outdoors and being more carefree, high-spirited and joyful as they experience activities like fitness, sports or simply a walk in fresh air. They are discovering the power in play – whether that be because of its impact on their wellbeing or because it helps to build stronger ties with others.

Powerfully Playful captures this through images of unbridled optimism, enjoyment of the small moments in life, outdoor fun and candid scenes with friends and family.

In the Groove captures this through imagery of individuals dancing, community troupe dancing, rhythmic movement and shapes, and interpretive dancing.
