

New Developer Tools Terms

This New Developer Tools Terms is incorporated by reference into the Adobe Creative Cloud, Firefly, and Substance 3D APIs PSLT. Capitalized terms not defined here have the same meaning as defined in the Adobe Creative Cloud, Firefly, and Substance 3D APIs PSLT.

1. Product Specific Terms for Firefly Creative Production

1.1. Applicability. If Customer is on the 2026v2 version (or later) of Adobe Creative Cloud, Firefly, and Substance 3D APIs, then the terms in this section 1 herein (Product Specific Terms for Firefly Creative Production) do not apply. For such Customers, Firefly Creative Production is not considered a new Developer Tool as described in section 10 (Additional Terms for New Developer Tools) of the Adobe Creative Cloud, Firefly, and Substance 3D APIs PSLT.

1.2. Terms.

- (A) Firefly Creative Production is an On-demand Service that is made available through the Firefly website, which is located at firefly.adobe.com. If Customer accesses and uses Firefly Creative Production, then such access and use is subject to the PSLT – Adobe Creative Cloud, Adobe Document Cloud, and Adobe Substance 3D as described here or as negotiated in the Agreement.
- (B) Firefly Creative Production includes a “custom nodes” feature that allows Customer to use their separate credentials to connect third-party services to Firefly Creative Production On-demand Services. Should Customer choose to connect third-party services to Firefly Creative Production, Customer’s access to and use of any such third-party services is governed solely by Customer’s agreement(s) with the applicable third party, and not by this Agreement. Any outputs generated by or through such third-party services are excluded from this Agreement and are not subject to any indemnification or other protections provided by Adobe under this Agreement.
